ORDER OF WORSHIP

GATHERING BEFORE THE WORD

WORDS OF MEDITATION

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and the princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock
The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the sick,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among others
To make music in the heart. – Howard Thurmon

WELCOME AND RITUAL OF FRIENDSHIP

CALL TO WORSHIP AND LIGHTING THE CHRIST CANDLE

(The primary symbolism of the Advent Candles has to do with light growing in darkness – leading up to the coming of Jesus Christ, the light of the world.)

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. Those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined.

The light shines in the darkness. And the darkness did not overcome it. Behold! I bring good news for all people.

HYMN 133

O Come, All Ye Faithful

ADESTE FIDELES

OPENING SENTENCES

Sing to the Lord a new song;

Sing to the Lord, all the Earth!

Sing to the Lord and bless God's name;

Tell the good news of salvation from day to day

OPENING HYMN 140

Once in Royal David's City

IRBY

PRAYER OF INTERCESSION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CHORAL ANTHEM	O Holy Night	by J.S. Dwight and A.C. Adam
---------------	--------------	------------------------------

O, holy night, the stars are brightly shining! It is the night of the dear Savior's birth. Long lay the world in sin and error pining, 'till he appeared and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices, for yonder breaks a new and glorious morn. Fall on your knees! O, hear the angels' voices! O night divine, o night when Christ was born. O night divine! Led by the light of faith serenely beaming, with glowing hearts by his cradle we stand. So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming, here came the wise men from the Orient land. The king of kings lay thus in lowly manger, in all our trials born to be our friend. He knows our need, he guards us from all danger. Behold your King, before him lowly bend!

O night divine! Truly he taught us to love one another, his law is love, and his gospel is peace. Chains shall he break, for the slave is our brother, and in his name all oppression shall cease. Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we, let all within us praise his holy name. Christ is the Lord! O, praise his name forever! His power and glory evermore proclaim! O night divine!

ANTHEM

God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen

arr. Gilbert M. Martin

God rest you merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay; remember Christ our savior was born on Christmas day, to save us all from Satan's pow'r when we were gone astray. O, tidings of comfort and joy! From God our heavenly father a blessed angel came, and unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same; how that in Bethlehem was born the son of God by name. O tidings of comfort and joy! Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place and with true love and charity each other now embrace; this holy tide of Christmas doth bring redeeming grace. O tidings of comfort and joy!

OFFERTORY

What Child Is This

arr. Patricia Lou Harris

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

God of every good and perfect gift, we thank you for your greatest gift, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. In this season when so many gifts are given and received, we pray that you will receive the gifts we offer now. Use them according to your purposes and plans, bringing your good news of great joy to all people; through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

THE SERVICE OF LIGHT

Our lights have been dimmed to symbolize the darkness of the world without Christ. The burning candles represent the divine source of light in that darkness. Please stand as the usher comes to your pew. To light your candle tilt it to the candle already lighted. Don't tip the lighted candle or the hot wax will drip onto you or the floor. We ask parents to supervise your children as they light and hold their candles. The candles will be extinguished following the Benediction.

Angels We Have Heard on High

arr. Mary MacDonald

Those who are able, please stand.

"Words and music printed for the hymns, Reprinted under OneLicense.net #A71731."

Thank you to all who assisted with the worship service this evening.

This week's flowers were given to the Glory of God, as printed in the back of the bulletin.

WORSHIP Just a reminder: If you aren't feeling your best (headache, fever, body ache), please consider staying at home until you feel like your old self again.

MASK OPTIONAL Mask wearing is optional for worship and all activities and groups using WPC's buildings or grounds. If you would like to wear one, we have KN-95 masks available for your use when you come to worship.

OFFERING ENVELOPES 2023 If you requested weekly offering envelopes for 2023, they are available for pick up in Fellowship Hall

IN-PERSON STAFF AND OFFICE HOURS

The Office is closed and the staff is taking a much needed break this week. We are, however, checking messages and emails.

Feel free to call the church office (610-566-1644) or email staff members as needed this week.

FLUTE LESSONS WITH ELISA MUZZILLO AVAILABLE

Tuesday & Wednesday nights at WPC. Experienced teacher to students of all skill levels ages 8-18+. 30 or 60 minute lesson durations. contact Elisa at elisamuzzflute@gmail.com for lesson rates and availability!

THE GIVING TREE & ANGEL TREE COMMITTEE would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the church community for your incredible generosity. This year you donated over 100 total gifts and gift cards, brightening the Christmas celebrations of so many children in our area. Because of your generosity, ten children of incarcerated parents will receive a gift from their parent this Christmas season. Families served by Chester Eastside and City Team will receive gifts and gift cards, and needy families identified by the WSSD social worker will be receiving gift cards.

CHAIRS FOR THE SANCTUARY

Friends, WPCers and countrymen – lend me your “rears” !

As some of you know, the Sanctuary, Worship and Disabilities Committees have discussed replacing the pews in our church with chairs, as has been done in several area churches as well as churches in Europe. The thought is that the use of chairs will give us greater flexibility in the use of our church space as well as giving us accessibility for all disabilities. Our initial plan is to replace 4 or 5 rows of pews with chairs – we would alternate chairs with arms and chairs without arms for additional flexibility. The chairs with arms would enable those who have difficulty getting up to have added support for standing.

So, with no “ifs” “ands” just “butts” we would like you to “try on” the two new chairs we have on display in Fellowship Hall. Members of the committees will be available to answer any questions you may have.

Thank you for keeping your minds open to these proposed changes.

From its Roman Catholic origins, this 18th-century hymn has spread to worldwide use by many denominations in both Latin and vernacular versions. Once popular with a wide range of hymn texts, this tune is now firmly associated with this Christmas text from which it is named.

 on to the place where he is gone.

Like "All Things Bright and Beautiful" (see no. 20), this popular Christmas hymn was written by an Irish poet to illustrate for children the various articles of the Apostles' Creed. It is not known which of several English villages the composer had in mind when naming this tune.

121 O Little Town of Bethlehem

1 O lit - tle town of Beth - le - hem, how still we see thee lie!
 2 For Christ is born of Mar - y and, gath - ered all a - bove,
 3 How si - lent - ly, how si - lent - ly, the won - drous gift is given!
 4 O ho - ly child of Beth - le - hem, de - scend to us, we pray;

 while mor - tals sleep, the an - gels keep their watch of won - dering love.
 So God im - parts to hu - man hearts the bless - ings of his heaven.
 cast out our sin and en - ter in; be born in us to - day.

Yet in thy dark streets shin - eth the ev - er - last - ing light;
 O morn - ing stars, to - geth - er pro - claim the ho - ly birth,
 No ear may hear his com - ing, but in this world of sin,
 We hear the Christ - mas an - gels the great glad ti - dings tell;

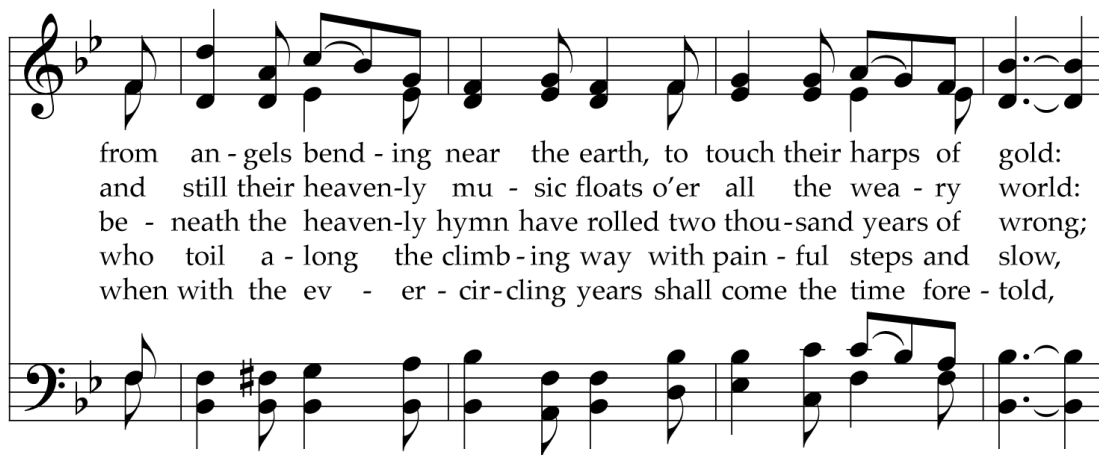

the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee to - night.
 and prais - es sing to God the king, and peace to all on earth.
 where meek souls will re - ceive him, still the dear Christ en - ters in.
 O come to us; a - bide with us, our Lord Em - man - u - el!

Though he was famed during his lifetime as a great preacher, no sermon Phillips Brooks ever preached has been heard or read by as many people as have sung this carol he wrote in December 1868 for the Sunday School children of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Philadelphia.

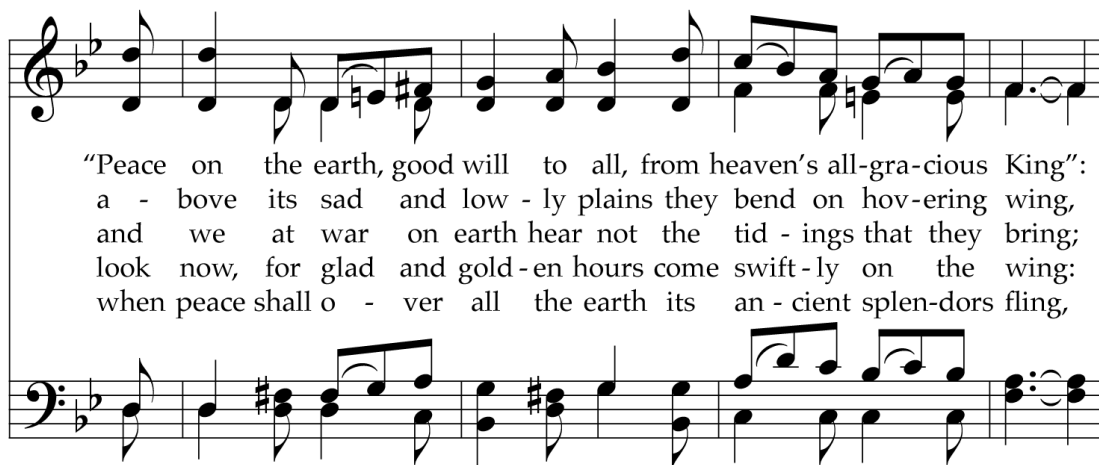

123 It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

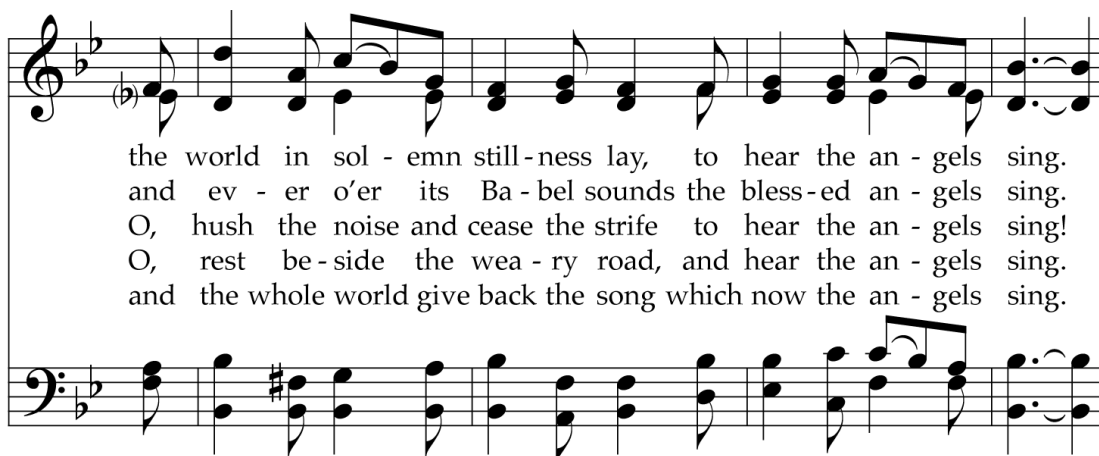

1 It came up-on the mid-night clear, that glo-rious song of old,
 2 Still through the clo - ven skies they come, with peace-ful wings un - furled,
 3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife the world has suf-fered long;
 4 And you, be-neath life's crush-ing load, whose forms are bend-ing low,
 5 For lo, the days are has-tening on, by proph-ets seen of old,

from an - gels bend - ing near the earth, to touch their harps of gold:
 and still their heaven-ly mu - sic floats o'er all the wea - ry world:
 be - neath the heaven-ly hymn have rolled two thou-sand years of wrong;
 who toil a - long the climb-ing way with pain - ful steps and slow, when with the ev - er - cir-cling years shall come the time fore - told,

"Peace on the earth, good will to all, from heaven's all-gra-cious King":
 a - bove its sad and low - ly plains they bend on hov-ering wing, and we at war on earth hear not the tid - ings that they bring;
 look now, for glad and gold - en hours come swift - ly on the wing:
 when peace shall o - ver all the earth its an - cient splen-dors fling, the world in sol - emn still-ness lay, to hear the an - gels sing.

 and ev - er o'er its Ba - bel sounds the bless-ed an - gels sing.
 O, hush the noise and cease the strife to hear the an - gels sing!
 O, rest be-side the wea - ry road, and hear the an - gels sing.
 and the whole world give back the song which now the an - gels sing.

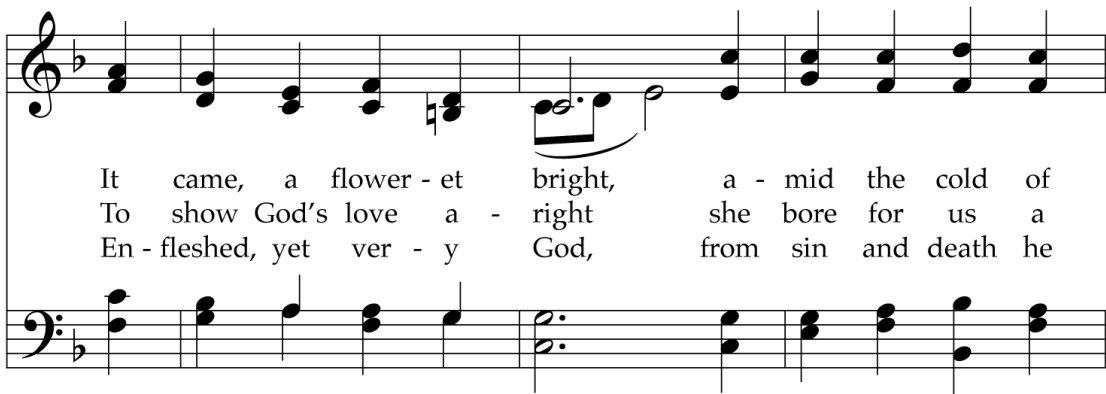

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming 129

Although the early copies of this 15th-century German text include many more stanzas than are printed here, this simpler, shorter form has much to commend it. This early 17th-century harmonization of the traditional chorale melody invites and rewards singing in parts.

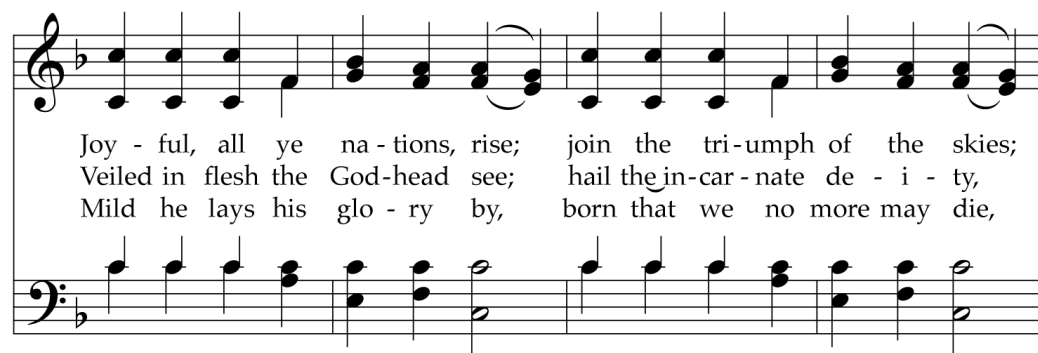

119 Hark! The Herald Angels Sing

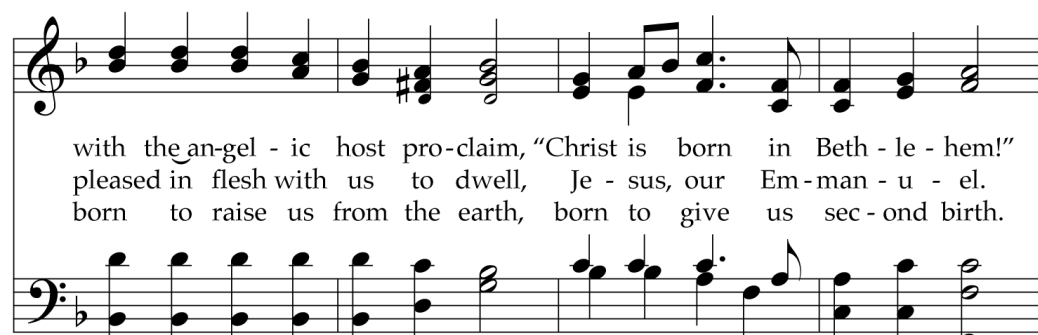

1 Hark! The her - ald an-gels sing, "Glo - ry to the new-born king.

 Veiled in flesh the God-head see; hail the in-car - nate de - i - ty,
 Mild he lays his glo - ry by, born that we no more may die, with the an-gel - ic host pro-claim, "Christ is born in Beth - le - hem!"

 pleased in flesh with us to dwell, Je - sus, our Em-man - u - el.
 born to raise us from the earth, born to give us sec - ond birth.

Hark! The her - ald an - gels sing, "Glo - ry to the new-born king!"

Silent Night, Holy Night! 122

The tradition that this carol's tune was created for guitar accompaniment at its first singing on Christmas Eve 1818 seems reliable, though a recent find shows that the text was about two years old. But there is no question that this is now a favorite Christmas carol worldwide.

While Isaac Watts did not write this text strictly for Christmas use, he did purposely cast his paraphrase of Psalm 98:4-9 in Christian terms, titling it "The Messiah's coming and kingdom." So "the Lord" here is Jesus Christ, rather than the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
