ORDER OF WORSHIP

GATHERING

WELCOME AND RITUAL OF FRIENDSHIP

CALL TO WORSHIP

Upon this gathering of your people,

Pour out your Holy Spirit, O Lord

Be near to us and speak to us,

And we will proclaim your glory.

Friends in Christ, this is the day the Lord has made.

We will rejoice and be glad in it. Let us worship God.

OPENING PRAYER

*OPENING HYMN #300

We Are One in the Spirit

THEY'LL KNOW WE ARE CHRISTIANS

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy God, source of living water, you have come to us to bear the burdens of this world, and you promise to meet us in the parched places of our own lives. Now we come to you,

Seeking relief from all we continue to carry,

Seeking refreshment and renewal for the work ahead,

Seeking answers to questions we don't even know to ask

Tired of the journey, we take our place beside the wellspring of your redeeming love.

And yet, occupied with our own weariness,

We confess that we miss the wonder of your promise and the call to participate in your work.

We have failed to bear the burdens of others,

We have ignored the deep needs that surround us,

We have denied the truths you reveal to your people.

(Silent Confession)

Forgive us we pray.

Forgive our misguided assumptions that lead to waters too shallow to satisfy this thirsty world.

Forgive our inadequate expectations that lead to waters too stagnant to stir in us your call to justice.

Forgive our pressing doubts that lead to waters already squandered by hasty answers.

We long for your mercy, O Lord.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*RESPONSE 582                      Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me                      (VASILE)

Glory to God whose goodness shines on me, and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me, and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

World without end, without end. Amen (x3)

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

*RESPONSE

Friends in Christ, God's forgiveness is not cheap grace, it requires something from us. Therefore I ask you, what shall we do in response to God's forgiveness?

As the beloved of God, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, anything that is excellent and worthy of praise, we will keep trying to do these things as Jesus taught us.

TIME WITH YOUNG DISCIPLES

All children are invited to come forward at this time. Parents are encouraged to accompany younger children and sit with them on the chancel steps or in the front seats. Then, children (18 months–11 years) are invited to Sunday School classes or to stay with us in worship. If this is your child's first time going to Sunday School, please accompany them downstairs in order to register your child.

Cantique de Jean Racine, op. 11

G. Fauré

Verbe égal au Très-Haut, notre unique espérance, Jour éternel de la terre et des cieux, De la paisible nuit nous rompons le silence: Divin sauveur, jette sur nous les yeux, Répands sur nous le feu de ta grâce puissante; Que tout l'enfer fuie au son de ta voix; Dissipe ce sommeil d'une âme languissante, Qui la conduit à l'oubli de tes lois! O Christ! sois favorable à ce peuple fidèle, Pour te bénir maintenant assemblé; Reçois les chants qu'il offre à ta gloire immortelle, Et de tes dons qu'il retourne comble.

Word, equal to (one with) the Highest, Our only Hope, Eternal day of the earth and heavens, We break the silence of the peaceful night; Divine Savior, cast your eyes upon us! Spread over us the fire of your powerful grace, That all hell may flee at the sound of your voice; Dispel the slumber of a languishing soul, That drives us to forget your laws. O Christ, show favor to this faithful people now assembled In order to bless (thank) you now. Accept the songs they offer to your immortal glory; And may they go forth filled (overjoyed) with your gifts.

Genesis 1:6-12

<sup>6</sup>And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." <sup>7</sup>So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. <sup>8</sup>God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

<sup>9</sup>And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. <sup>10</sup>God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup>Then God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it." And it was so. <sup>12</sup>The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good.

John 4:4-13, & 7:37-38

<sup>4</sup>But he had to go through Samaria. <sup>5</sup>So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup>Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. <sup>7</sup>A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." <sup>8</sup>(His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) <sup>9</sup>The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." <sup>11</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?" <sup>12</sup>Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" <sup>13</sup>Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again,

<sup>37</sup>On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, <sup>38</sup>and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water.'"

They'll Know We Are Christians by Our Love

1 We are one in the Spir - it; we are one in the Lord;
 2 We will walk with each oth - er; we will walk hand in hand;
 3 We will work with each oth - er; we will work side by side;
 4 All praise to the Fa - ther, from whom all things come,

we are one in the Spir - it; we are one in the Lord,
 we will walk with each oth - er; we will walk hand in hand,
 we will work with each oth - er; we will work side by side,
 and all praise to Christ Je - sus, God's on - ly Son,

and we pray that all u - ni - ty may one day be re - stored:

 and all praise to the Spir - it, who makes us one:

And they'll know we are Chris-tians by our love, by our love; yes, they'll know we are Chris-tians by our love.

A parish priest at St. Brendan's on the South Side of Chicago in the 1960s was very involved in the local Civil Rights movement and needed something for his youth choir to sing at ecumenical, interracial events. Finding nothing, he wrote this song in a single day.

465 What a Friend We Have in Jesus

This text was written by an Irish-born immigrant to Canada to comfort his mother in Ireland when she was going through a time of special sorrow. The role of prayer as a source of strength and consolation is underscored by its repeated use as a rhyme word in all three stanzas.

**Or "Great is thy faithfulness, O God, Creator."*

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22–23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1200 poems by this Methodist writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.
